About Company

At Afghan Safi Refinery Company, nestled in the heart of Afghanistan, we pride ourselves on our dedication to excellence in the oil refining sector. We procure crude oil from the esteemed Qashqari mine and employ advanced refining techniques to craft premium-grade petrol, diesel, and fuel oil. Our products serve as vital energy resources, meeting the diverse needs of Afghanistan's provinces. With an unwavering commitment to innovation, we continuously explore opportunities to expand our product range, envisioning the introduction of items like grease, lubricants, and beyond in the near future. Our ethos revolves around maintaining impeccable quality standards while upholding sustainable practices, ensuring both efficiency and environmental responsibility. As we contribute to the nation's progress, we remain steadfast in our mission to safeguard the natural world for generations to come. Join us in our journey towards a brighter, greener future for Afghanistan and beyond.
